

Wildlife and Lands - Overview

Bret Forrester

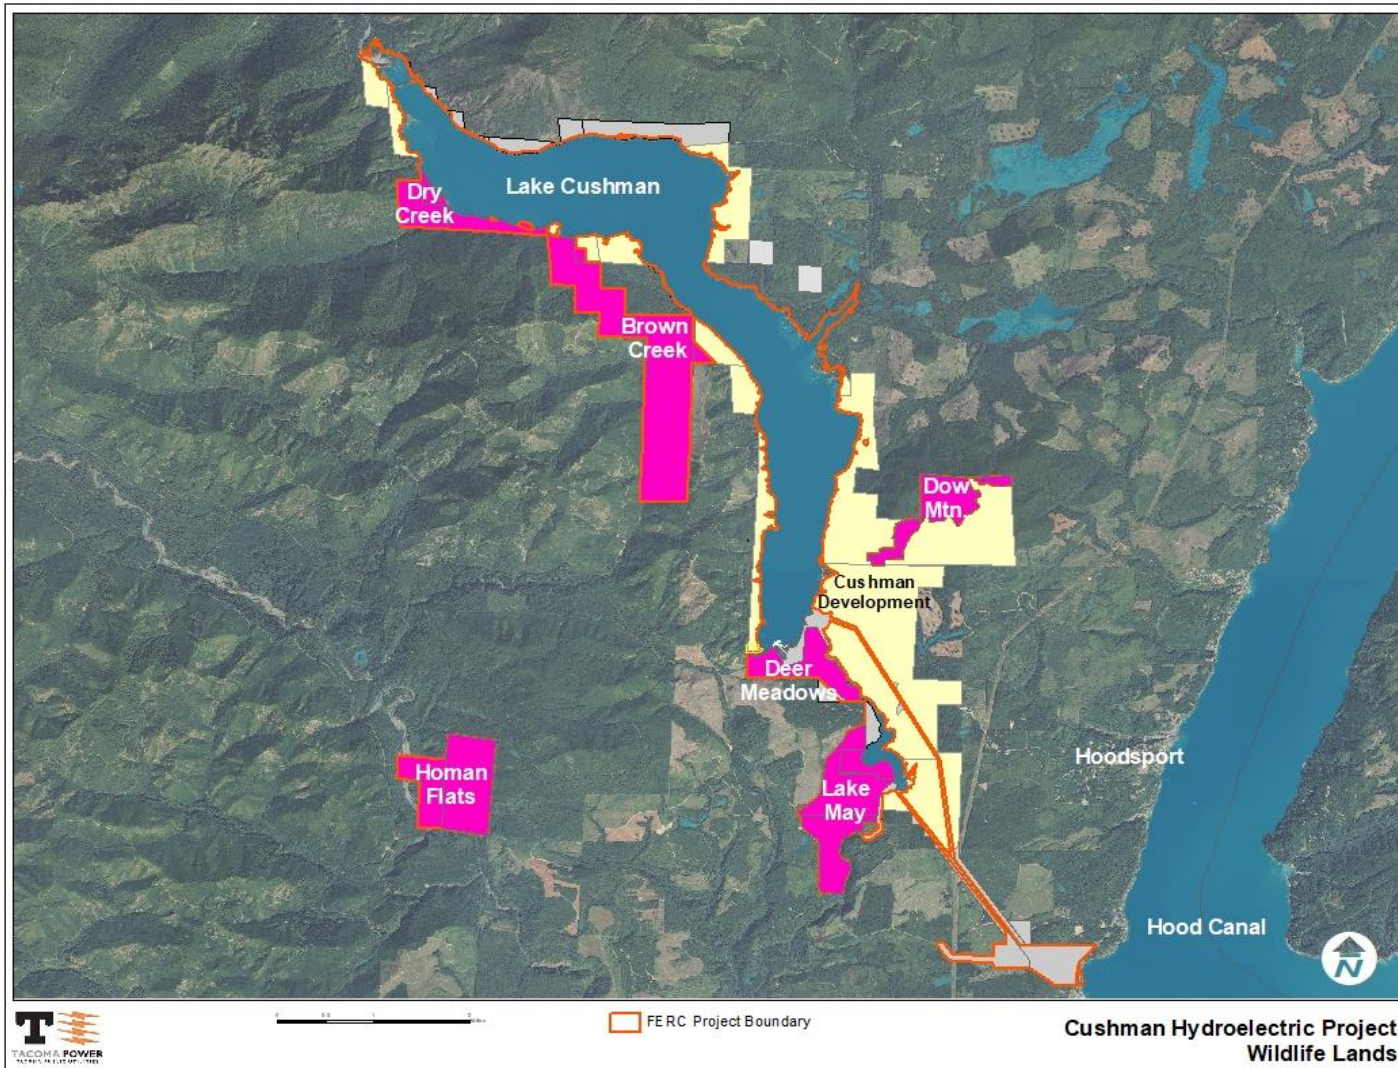

Wildlife and Lands Manager

Cushman Wildlife Lands

Bret Forrester
Wildlife and Lands Manager

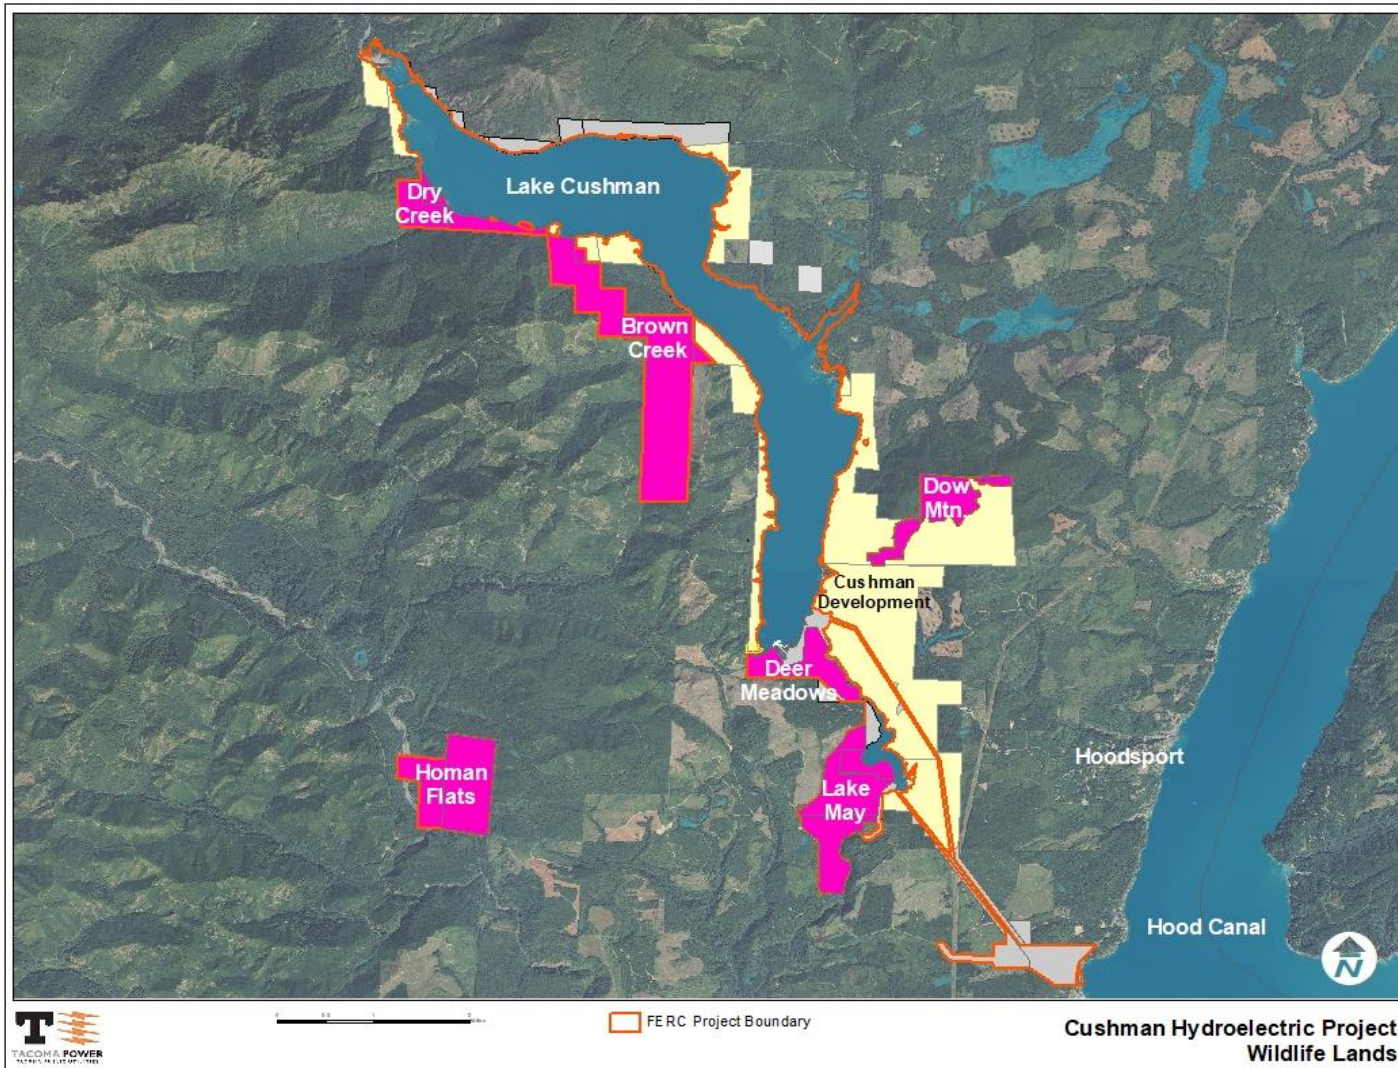

Cushman Wildlife Lands

Elk Forage Fields

- 75 acres constructed
- Monitoring elk use during each season
- Up to 200 acres to be built depending on use

Cushman Wildlife Lands

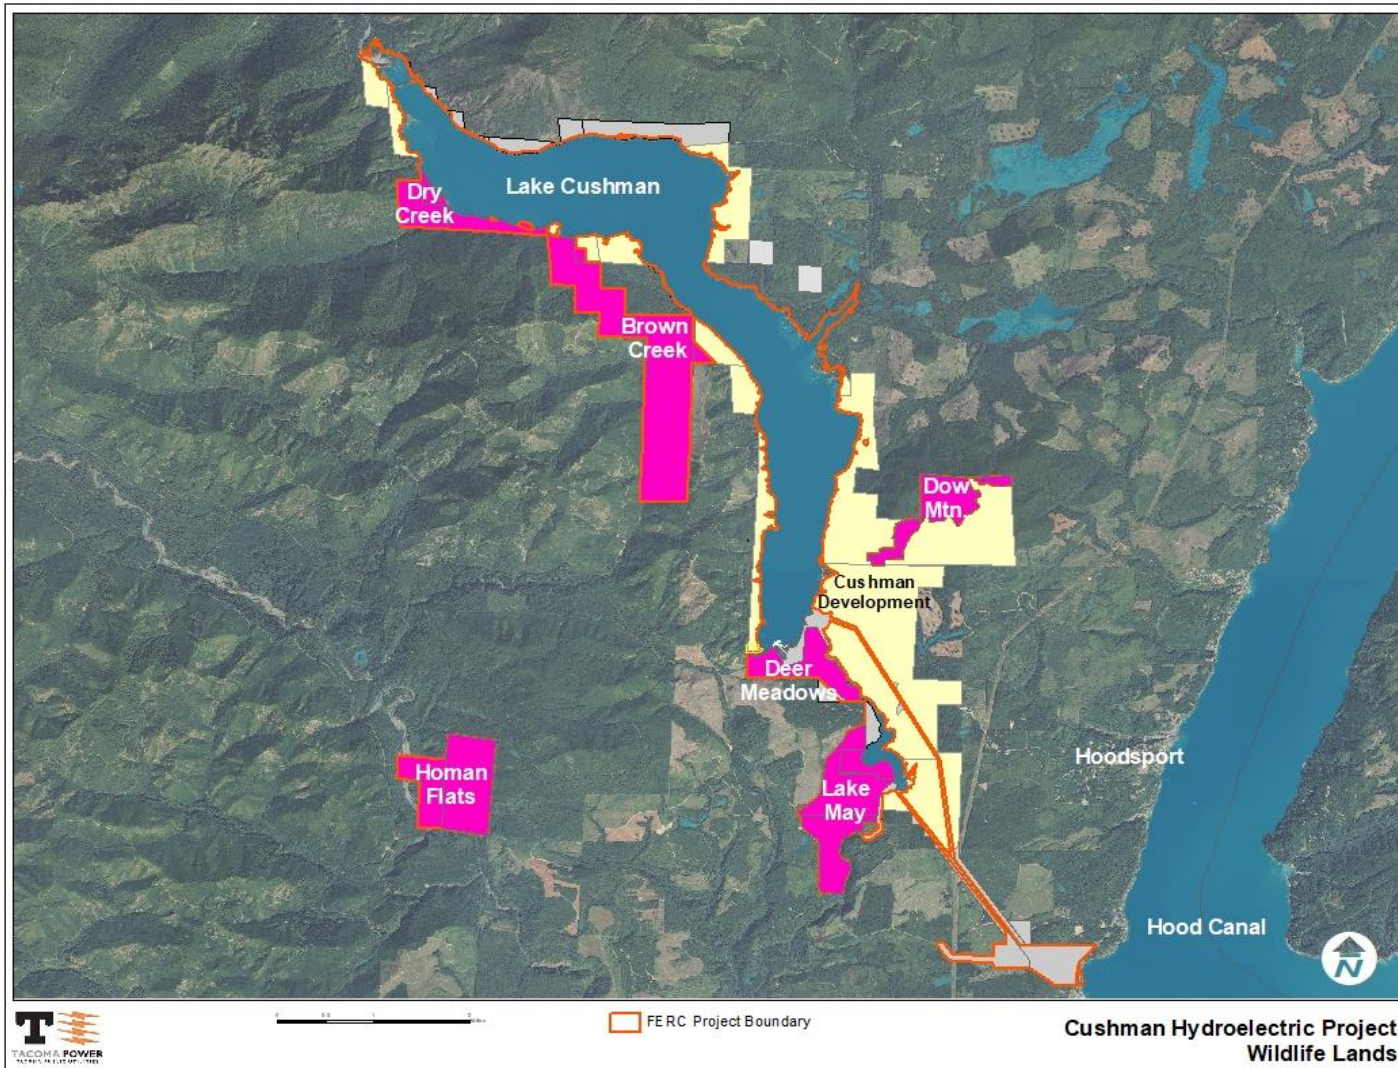

Snag Creation

- 300 snags created
- Habitat for cavity-nesting birds
- Dow Mountain and Brown Creek vicinity

Cushman Wildlife Lands

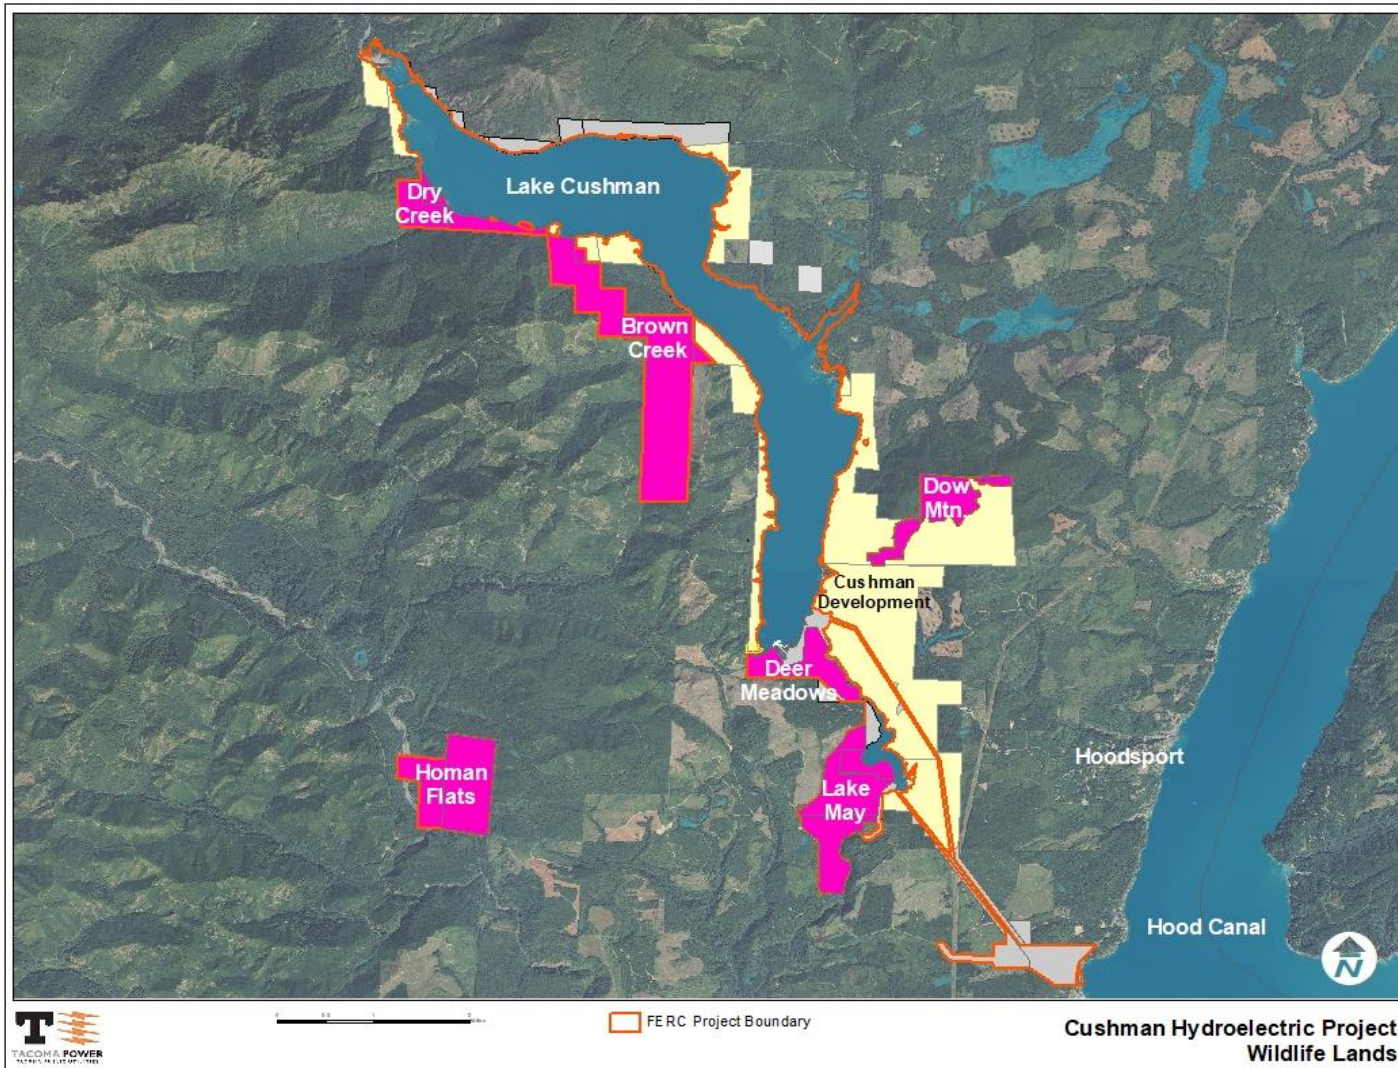

Timber Thinning

- 200 acres thinned
- Promote mature forest development
- Increase habitat diversity
- Lake May, Homan Flats, and Brown Creek parcels

Cushman Wildlife Lands

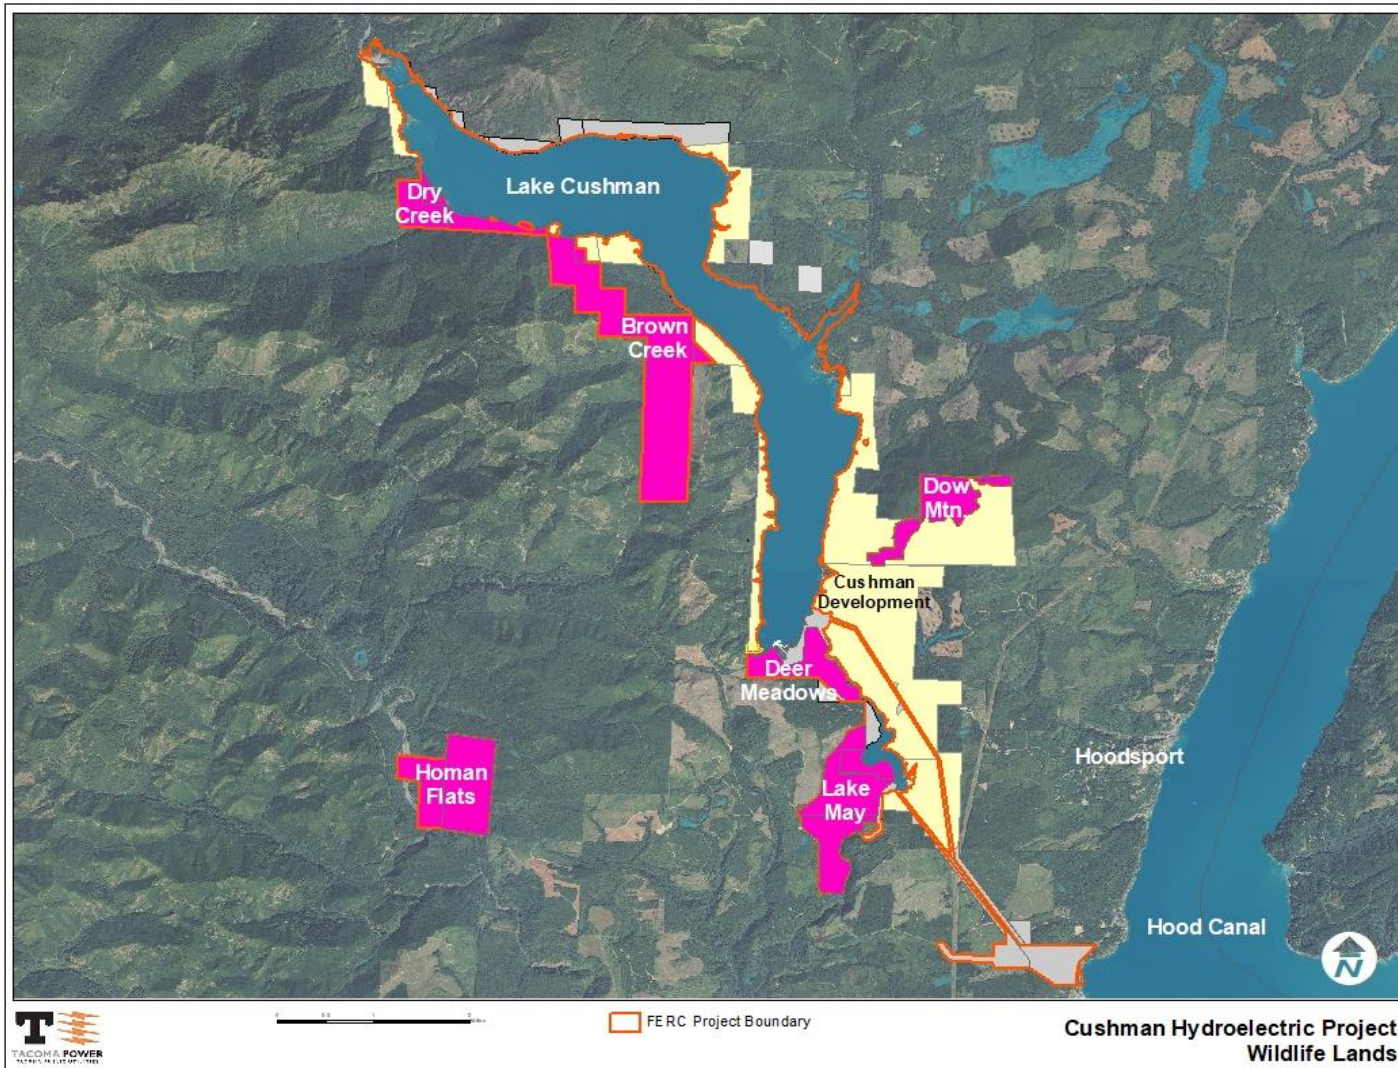

Wood Duck Nest Boxes

2017/05/24

Cushman Wildlife Lands

Shoreline Use Permitting

CUSHMAN SHORELINE MANAGEMENT PLAN PUBLIC MEETING

Friday, Sept. 20
4 to 6 p.m.
Fire Hall

240 N. Standstill Dr., Hoodspport

We'll discuss proposed updates to our shoreline structure permitting conditions, solicit your feedback, and answer your questions.

Please RSVP: msundbaum@cityoftacoma.org

TACOMA POWER
TACOMA PUBLIC UTILITIES

Shoreline Use Permitting

BEFORE

Shoreline Use Permitting

AFTER

Shoreline Use Permitting

BEFORE

Shoreline Use Permitting

AFTER

Shoreline Use Permitting

BEFORE

Shoreline Use Permitting

AFTER

Shoreline Use Permitting

BEFORE

Shoreline Use Permitting

AFTER

Staircase Road Recreation Sites

Staircase Road Recreation Sites

Staircase Road Recreation Sites

Staircase Road Recreation Sites

Staircase Road Improvements

Cushman Wildlife Lands

Wildlife and Lands – Staircase Road

Keith Underwood

Natural Resources Manager

Yewah Lau

District Ranger, Olympic National Forest, USFS