

Advanced Meter timeline

Complete system integration and testing. Complete installation of network infrastructure. Finalize meter deployment schedule. Employee readiness training and customer communications. Begin meter installations.

Public Utility Board approves contracts. System design and integration continue. Installation of network infrastructure occurs. A lab is created to test system functions. Public outreach and employee training start.

Visit MyTPU.org/AdvancedMeters

