

Intent:
Annual Project Review -
Fisheries and Hatchery Management Plan

July 10, 2019

	Dam		Net Pens
	Dam and Fish Collection Facility		Release Sites
	Fish Hatchery		Weirs
	Acclimation Pond		Peak

Recent History

- Last Annual Program Review
  - Conducted 2016
- Since 2016:
  - Little to no change in Artificial Production Programs
  - Preparation and development of new Fisheries and Hatchery Management Plan

Fisheries and Hatchery Management Plan

- Intent – Tacoma Power to implement measures to restore and recover natural origin populations and support recreational fisheries.
  - Quantity and size
  - Rearing and release strategies
  - Credit mechanism
  - Monitoring and Evaluation
  - Fisheries Management Strategy
- Current Status – In draft
- Next Steps
  - Public Review of chapters in July and August

Annual Project Review

- Intent – Develop population management strategy for the coming season
- Steps
  - Key Assumptions identified for each population
  - Status and Trends
  - Decision Rules
  - Annual Action Plan

Science

- Five-year trends
  - Habitat
  - Natural Production
  - Harvest (in and out of basin)
  - Hatchery Operations

Annual Project Review Process

How will this Information Be Used?

Next Steps

- Aug. 6, 2019 Fisheries Technical Committee meeting
  - Review information presented today
  - Tacoma Present Program Options that fit with Decision Rules
  - Fisheries Technical Committee revises options as necessary prior to next public meeting (Aug. 14, 2019)

Annual Project Review Process

Next Steps

Aug. 14 - Annual Project Review

- Present Program Options to Public
  - Receive feedback for current or future program implementation
- Present Fisheries and Hatchery Management Plan main topics
  - Receive Feedback

Annual Action Plan

- Plan for operating fisheries in 2020
- Summary of Annual Project Review and conclusions

Annual Project Review Process

